Through study and active participation in the program of the United Society of Friends Women International, we increase our concerns for the needs of those around us. Some of these concerns are met by the local society, others by the combined societies working together at the yearly meeting level, still others at the national and international level.

The framework of the United Society of Friends Women International is flexible enough to allow societies to adjust practices and procedures to their own situations.

STRUCTURE

The United Society of Friends Women International is the overall organization of Yearly Meeting United Societies.

The Executive Committee is composed of officers, secretaries of departments, clerk of John Sarrin Scholarship committee, and the staff of the official publication. This committee guides and coordinates the interests of Friends women by close contact with the yearly meeting presidents or presiding clerks and department secretaries. This planning welds the members into a united group of fellowship, prayer and service.

The executive Committee is chosen from constituent yearly meetings. (see Article X and XI)

YEARLY MEETING UNITED SOCIETY

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS

Of the

UNITED SOCIETY OF FRIENDS WOMEN INTERNATIONAL

Preamble

Whereas, in the growth of the missionary spirit among Friends we came to have a Women's Home Mission Council, and whereas, this organization was accepted by the Triennial Conference of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Union as an associate in the Conference held in May, 1914, in Muncie, Indiana, and whereas, in the Conference held in October, 1917, the Woman's Foreign Missionary Union and Woman's Home Mission Council were merged into one organization to be governed by one constitution and by-laws and to be directed by one set of officers, and to be known as the Woman's Missionary Union of Friends in America; and whereas, there are everbroadening responsibilities evolving for Christian women, and the need exists for enlisting all the women of Friends Meetings to share in the mission of the Church at home and abroad and in order that a more unified organization might be consummated through which all of the interests of Friends women might be channeled, therefore it was approved at the Conference held in Poughkeepsie, New York, May 1-5, 1948 that this organization be known as the United Society of Friends Women.
